BALTIMORE, JANUARY 6.—Gov. Hickspublishes an address to the citizens of Maryland, giving his reasons for refusing to convene the Legislature. It fils two columns of the American, and abounds with most emphatic Union sentiments. The following are extracted.

hostic empastic Union sentiments. The following are extracte:

I firmly believe that a division of this ticrernment would inevitably produce civilwar. The secession leaders of South Carolina, and the fanatical demagagues of the North, have alike proclaimed that such will be the result; and no man of sense, in my opinion, can mestion it. What could the be the result; and no man of sense, in my opinion, can question it. What could the Legislature do in this crisis, if convered, to remove the present trouble which besets th Union? We are told by the leading spirits of the South Carolina Couvention, that neither the election of Mr. Lincoln, nor the non-excedion of the Figitive Slave Law, nor hold combined, constitute their grievances; they declare that the sole cause of their discrete the contract of their discrete that the sole cause of their discrete that the sole cause of their discontent dates as far back as 153 Maryland and every other state in the Union, with a united voice, then declared that cause insufficient to justify the course of South Carolina Can it be that the people who then unanimously supported the course of Gen Jackson, will now yield their opinions at the bidding of modern secessionists! I have been told that the position of opinions at the bidding of modern secessionists! I have been told that the position of
